4. There will be NO SUBSTITUTES. Horses not cataloged sell last.
5. HORSES WILL BE SOLD IN CATALOG ORDER.

Twin Cities Horse Sales was action packed this fall. We sold a wide variety of horses, and broke horses of all disciplines were in HIGH demand and topped the sales. Two big weekends brought in buyers and consignors from 30 states, Canada and Mexico. The crowd was very active, horses went to individual buyers throughout the United States and two countries. Twin Cities Horse Sales high selling horse for all sales combined AQHA, APHA & ApHC was a 1998 double registered AQHA/APHA sorrel stallion by Smart Chic Olena and out of a Peppy San Badger mare consigned by Jim and Ryon Simon and purchased by Greg and Faye Little out of Manitoba, Canada for $37,000. What a highlight - this horse has won over $30,000 in the NRHA, he was the 2007 NRHA North American Non-Pro Affiliate Champion and the list goes on with this guy. We were very proud to have a horse with his credentials. Greg & Faye, not only did you purchase a proven show horse but an excellent addition to your breeding program and a sound investment in the horse industry. Congratulations on the purchase of "Frosty Peppys Chic." Our 2nd high selling horse was a 2004 bay APHA gelding consigned by Joe and Sheryl Biondahl of Iowa. This big gelding had points in WP, HUS, Trail and Color in the APHA and the Pinto. He sold for $10,000 to a North Dakota buyer. Our 3rd high selling horse was a 2000 Sorrel APHA mare by Zippos Old Gold consigned by Moore Horse Co. of Michigan that sold for $8,200. Congratulations Cary Roth of Illinois on your purchase of this nice western pleasure mare.

We continue to have a strong, solid market on broke horses. Highlights this fall were horses of any discipline that you could take to the show pen and win. Performance horses, reining, cutting, show, halter and using horses with the essentials in color, size, pedigree and conformation demanded top dollar and the attention of people near and far. Twin Cities Horse Sales continues to grow each year, and your confidence in our ability to create an honest marketplace for both buyers and sellers has allowed us to be one of the nation's leading sale companies. We have many horse sales coming in 2009, and consignments are already coming in. Be sure to get your entries in early for good selling positions and national advertising. We are going into the New Year with renewed energy and high expectations. Thank you for your past, present and future support. We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming sales.

 - 100x225 Indoor riding area
 - Consignors paid day of sale
 - Buyers coast-to-coast and border-to-border
 - 500 Individual Box Stalls
 - Knowledgeable, top sales personnel and staff
 - Sales advertised in major horse publications
 - Heated wash rack
 - Individual days for each breed

We take pride in having been in the auction business for over 40 years and offering you the soundest market available. Whether you are new to the horse industry, or an old veteran, our experienced staff will work hard for you. Our goal is to help make your experience with Twin Cities Horse Sales an enjoyable one.

Also, once a horse is consigned, bring it to the sale. With the strong demand for good horses, selling your consignment before the sale could be a costly mistake. People travel a great distance to attend our sales and having a horse in the catalog that is not in the sale can be a big disappointment.

As you read the statistics on the following page, we think you will see that we consistently have a good, solid auction market, not just on the top 5 or 10 horses. Twin Cities Horse Sales strongly feels we can be a great asset to sellers for future marketing of your horses. For buyers we always have a large selection of fresh horses to fit all aspects of the horse industry.
